2. The learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the second respondent are present.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the sole petitioner died and that fact is evidenced from the returned postal cover addressed to the petitioner. He has filed Memo to that effect.

4. He further submit that he has no further instructions from the legal heirs of the civil revision petitioner. Therefore, this Court is of the view that no purpose would be served keeping the revision petitions pending.

5. In the result, both the Civil Revision Petitions stand dismissed as abated. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
