2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this petitioner and the defacto complainant namely Surya are friends from childhood. At request of Surya to pledge her jewels to meet out her personal expenses, the petitioner pledged the jewels of Surya in her name for a sum of Rs.7,40,000/-. Further, she borrowed a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- from Surya in the month of April, for which also, she paid monthly interest. In these circumstances, one day Surya approached this petitioner, asked to redeem her jewels and demanded Rs.1,00,000/- also. This petitioner asked time to return the money in three installments. But the said Surya refused her request and entered into quarrel with her. Later, she gave a complaint against the petitioner, foisting false allegations. The respondent Police did not issue proper summons and they called for enquiry over phone call. This petitioner also appeared before the respondent Police. At that time, they threatened to return Rs.8,00,000/-. Hence, this petition has been filed to quash the summon issued by
