3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 06.09.2023, hence he seeks bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner robbed gold jewels of the wife of the defacto complainant and murdered her by strangulating her neck, hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This is the second application for bail and the earlier bail was dismissed taking into consideration the fact that it is case of murder for gain and there is no change in circumstances of the case to consider the present petition for bail, hence this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. In the result, the petition stands dismissed.
