

Court No. - 9

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CIVIL) No. - 778 of 2020

Applicant :- Om Prakash Rai And Another

Opposite Party :- Vinod Kumar Kanaujiya, General Manager,
Kisan Sahakari Chini Mill Ltd.

Counsel for Applicant :- Sanjay Kumar Mishra

Counsel for Opposite Party :- Ravindra Singh, Ravindra Singh

Hon'ble Rohit Ranjan Agarwal, J.

The writ Court while allowing the writ petition on 13.12.2017 had permitted the applicants to work as regular employees and payment of 70% backwages was to be granted in favour of the applicants.

Pursuant to the order of the writ Court, an affidavit of compliance has been filed by the opposite party wherein in para 5, it has been stated that a Cheque amounting to Rs.7,49,020/- has been handed over to the applicant no.1 and a Cheque amounting to Rs.7,61,769/- has been handed over to the applicant no.2. Copies of the Cheques and receiving have been brought on record as Annexures 2 and 3.

In view of the said fact as the order of the writ Court has been complied with by the opposite party, present contempt application is rendered infructuous and the same stands dismissed.

However, it is open to the applicants to file a recall application in case, the entire payment has not been made to them.
