Hon'ble Rohit Ranjan Agarwal,J.

Heard Sri Lavelsh Kumar Shukla, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Ashok Kumar Singh and Sri Yatindra, learned counsel for opposite party.

The writ Court on 28.11.2018 while disposing of Writ-A No. 22509 of 2018 had given the liberty to the applicant as well as other petitioners of writ petition to appear before the authorities for counseling. A representation was moved on behalf of the applicant on 13.12.2018. Copy of which has been brought on record as Annexure-2 to affidavit to contempt application wherein it has been specifically mentioned by the applicant that cut off for general category was 62.25 while the applicant who belonged to general category has secured 57.73 marks. As it is own case of the applicant that he is below the cut off mark, as such, he was not called for counseling.

In view of said fact, the contempt application has become infructuous and stands dismissed.
