Hon'ble Anish Kumar Gupta,J.

1. Case called out. None is present on behalf of learned counsel for the applicants to press the instant applications. However, learned AGA for State is present.

2. In the first petition being No.16596 of 2007, vide order dated 17.07.2003, notices were issued and the further proceedings of Criminal Case No. 2824 of 2005 pending before the Court Judicial Magistrate, (CBI), Ghaziabad was stayed. Likewise the same order was passed on 23.07.2007 in the connected matter bearing No.17035 of 2007. Since then the matters are pending for disposal.

3. On 06.02.2003, learned counsel for applicants sought time to verify the status from his clients. Again on 14.03.2023, similar prayer was made stating that the learned counsel for applicants has no instruction from his client. Again on 18.08.2023, learned counsel for applicants has marked the illness slip in the cause list, upon which, this matter could not be taken up and when the matter was taken up on 09.22.2023 an illness slip was sent by the learned counsel for the applicants. Therefore, this matter was directed to be listed today peremptorily. Today also, an illness has been marked in both the matters by the learned counsel for the applicants.

4. Since continuously an adjournment is being sought and an illness slip is being marked by the learned counsel for the applicants and previously he said that he do not have any instruction from his client, therefore, thrice the matter has been listed peremptorily.

5. In view thereof, the instant applications are dismissed for want of prosecution.
