Hon'ble Surendra Singh-I, J.

1. List revised.
2. Shri Abhinava Krishna Srivastava, learned counsel for the Nagar Nigam Kanpur Nagar and Shri Sumit Suri, Advocate, holding brief of Shri Nipun Singh, learned counsel for the Uttar Pradesh Avas Evam Vikas Parishad, are present.
3. Solitary grievance of the petitioners appears to be that no allotment has been made in their favour that despite making a proper application more than 20 years ago. In proof thereof, reliance has been placed on deposit of Rs. 2500/- each by the petitioners vide receipt dated 15.02.2003.
4. Facts are in dispute. At present, it cannot be determined if the petitioners are entitled to allotment claimed.
5. Accordingly, no useful purpose would be served in keeping the present petition pending or calling for any counter affidavit at this stage.

6. The writ petition is disposed of with the direction, in case the petitioners file their individual representation supported by their personal affidavit/s annexing thereto all relevant documents and basis of their claim before the respondent no. 2 within a period of four weeks from today along with a copy of this order, that representation may be dealt with and decided on its own merits by a reasoned and speaking order, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of two months from the date of compliance shown by the petitioners.
