The writ Court on 17.12.2018 in Writ-A No. 26665 of 2018 passed the following order:-

"Learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents are present.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the appeal is already pending before the concerned authority since 6.6.2018 and yet has not been decided.

The Court is not inclined to interfere in the matter in view of the efficacious alternative remedy available to the petitioner.

In view of the above therefore, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the concerned competent authority to dispose of the appeal within a further period of six weeks from the date of production of certified copy of the order in accordance with law."

From perusal of the order, it is clear that a direction was issued for deciding the appeal.

Today, a compliance affidavit has been filed wherein it has been stated that appeal has been decided on 10.10.2023. Copy of which has been brought on record as Annexure-1 to compliance affidavit.

In view of said fact, as the order of writ Court has been complied with, the contempt application is rendered infructuous and the same stands dismissed.

Contempt notice stands discharged.
