

Court No. - 93

Case :- APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 31975 of 2023

Applicant :- Ashu @ Aas Mohammad

Opposite Party :- State of U.P.

Counsel for Applicant :- Umesh Singh, Uday Bhan

Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.

1. Heard Sri Umesh Singh, learned counsel along with Sri Sandeep Kumar Prajapati, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Anish Kumar Upadhyay, learned AGA for the State.

2. The present 482 Cr.P.C. application has been filed to allow this application and direct the court below to accept the personal bond and two sureties in one criminal case treating the same for all 10 criminal cases mentioned in paragraph of this application.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that he is a poor person and was unable to furnish 20 sureties for ten days. Therefore, in 10 cases mentioned against the applicant in paragraph no.7 of the affidavit, he could not be released, despite the fact that he has been released on bail in all cases.

4. Considering the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Hani Nishad @ Mohammad Imran @ Vikky Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No(s).8914-8915 of 2018 as well as considering the fact that applicant is unable to furnish separate sureties and bond for 10 cases against him due to his poor financial condition. It is directed that two sureties and bond furnished in one case having case crime no.98 of 2022, u/s-457, 380 IPC, Police Station-Pertapur, District-Meerut shall be deemed to be good for all other nine cases and applicant be released on the basis of sureties and bail bond in the aforesaid case crime number.

5. With the aforesaid observations, the present application is disposed of.

Order Date :- 12.10.2023

S.Chaurasia