Hon'ble Mahesh Chandra Tripathi, J.

Hon'ble Prashant Kumar, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Pranjal Mehrotra, learned Counsel for respondents.
2. Sri Pranjal Mehrotra, learned counsel appearing for contesting respondents, raised a preliminary objection regarding maintainability of the writ petition stating that in view of Clause 14 of special conditions of the contract, which provides resolution of dispute by way of arbitration, petitioner has efficacious remedy to question the validity of the order impugned herein before the Arbitrator.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner, when confronted, could not dispute the aforesaid fact. In view thereof, we are not inclined to entertain this writ petition.
4. The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
5. Needless to say that it is open to petitioner to invoke the remedy in terms of Clause 14 of special conditions of the contract.

Order Date :- 22.11.2023
