Hon'ble Mahesh Chandra Tripathi, J.

Hon'ble Prashant Kumar, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondent nos. 1 to 7.
2. In pith and substance, the grievance of the petitioner is that till date the first information report has not been lodged.
3. Sri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel has placed detailed instructions indicating therein the first information report has already been lodged, therefore, the grievance of the petitioner is no more survive. He further states that investigation of the first information report in Case Crime No. 0605 of 2023, under Sections 279, 304-A IPC, Police Station Handia, District Prayagraj is in progress.
4. Confronted with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner states that direction may be issued to the concerned Investigating Officer for ensuring the free and fair investigation.
5. Considering the instruction as the petitioner's grievance has already been redressed the same is rendered as infructuous.
6. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous.
7. Needless to say it is also always expected from the concerned Investigating Officer to conclude the investigation of the said case fairly, impartially and expeditiously.
