Hon'ble Rohit Ranjan Agarwal, J.

The writ Court in Writ-A No. 14241 of 2022 on 19.12.2022 while setting aside the order dated 16.11.2021 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Agra, had directed the opposite party to consider the claim of the applicant for grant of compassionate appointment.

Today compliance affidavit has been filed wherein it has been stated that the order of writ Court has been complied with and claim of the applicant has been decided vide order dated 27.10.2023, copy of which has been brought on record as annexure No. 1 to the compliance affidavit.

As the order of writ Court was only to the extent to consider the claim of the applicant which the opposite party had already done, no case for contempt is made out.

Contempt application stands dismissed.

Contempt notice stands discharged.

File consign to record.

Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the claim of the applicant has been rejected by the opposite party on the earlier grounds and no new ground has been taken in the order of opposite party.

This Court finds that the order of writ Court was only to the extent to decide the claim of the applicant, which the authority had done. However, applicant is at liberty to challenge the order of opposite party before the appropriate forum, if so advised.
