The submission advanced by learned counsel for the applicant is that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case due to ulterior motive. According to FIR the first informant has stated that her daughter Radhika eloped with the applicant along with Rs. 8,000/- and some ornaments, thereafter on the next day she recovered but they had taken the money and ornaments. According to report of C.M.O. the age of the victim is 16 years. The victim has stated under section 164 Cr.P.C. that applicant has made physical relation with her on the assurance of marrying with her, which shows that victim was consenting party with the applicant. Several other submissions in order to demonstrate the falsity of the allegations made against the applicant have also been placed before the Court. The circumstances which, according to the counsel, led to the false implication of the accused have also been mentioned. It has also been assured on behalf of the applicant that he is ready to cooperate with the process of law and shall faithfully make himself available before the court whenever required and is also ready to accept all the conditions which the Court may deem fit to impose upon him. Per contra, learned AGA for the State has opposed the prayer for bail but admitted the fact that victim was a consenting party with the applicant.

After perusing the record in the light of the submissions made at the bar and after taking an overall view of all the facts and circumstances of this case, the nature of evidence and also the absence of any convincing material to indicate the possibility of tampering with the evidence, this Court is of the view that the applicant may be enlarged on bail.
