

Court No. - 93

Case :- APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 38024 of 2023

Applicant :- Rajendra Yadav

Opposite Party :- State Of U.P. And 9 Others

Counsel for Applicant :- Ashok Kumar Upadhyay

Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal,J.

Heard Sri Shailendra Singh, advocate holding brief of Sri Ashok Kr. Upadhyay, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Ramesh Kumar, learned A.G.A. for the State.

The present application has been filed for directing the court concerned to accept the personal bond of Rs.50,000/- and also two sureties of like amount in Case Crime No. 451 of 2022, u/s 330, 411 I.P.C., P.S. Sarnath, District Varanasi, pursuant to the bail order dated 18.4.2023 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Varanasi and the same may be accepted in all the case crime numbers mentioned in paragraph No.16 of the affidavit.

Contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that though the applicant has been released on bail in all the nine cases mentioned in paragraph-16 of the affidavit, but because of his poor financial condition, he is unable to execute sureties and bonds in all the cases, separately.

Considering the aforesaid submission and taking into consideration the observation of the Apex Court made in Hani Nishad @ Mohammad Imran @ Vikky vs. State of U.P.; 2018 LawSuit (SC) 1637, it is directed that if the applicant executes surety and bail bond in one case, the same shall be considered valid for remaining 8 cases also and the applicant shall be released on that surety and bond.

With the aforesaid direction the applications is disposed of.
