

Court No. - 82

Case :- CRIMINAL REVISION No. - 5573 of 2023

Revisionist :- Raja Ram Baudh

Opposite Party :- State of U.P. and Another

Counsel for Revisionist :- Navin Kumar

Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.,A.K. Mishra,Sati Shanker Tripathi

Hon'ble Ms. Nand Prabha Shukla,J.

Heard Sri Navin Kumar, learned counsel for the revisionist, Sri Sati Shanker Tripathi, learned counsel for the opposite parties and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Learned counsel for the revisionist has challenged the order dated 05.10.2023 for producing the handwriting expert to examine the signatures on the disputed cheques.

The learned Trial Court while considering the aforesaid submission has recorded its reasons that the accused in his statement under Sections 251 Cr.P.C. and 313 Cr.P.C. had himself admitted that he signed the cheques. The application has been moved to delay the trial proceedings. Therefore, the application of the revisionist was dismissed awarding special cost of Rs. 200/- which was to be deposited at the District Legal Services Authority.

From the perusal of the record, we find that the learned Trial Court has passed the impugned order, after application of mind and after considering the facts and circumstances in totality. There is no illegality in the impugned order.

The revision is, accordingly, dismissed.
