Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma,J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned AGA for the State and perused the record.
2. The instant bail application has been moved on behalf of the applicant with a prayer to enlarge her on bail in Case Crime No.0699 of 2017, under Sections 406, 409 IPC, Police Station Farah, District Mathura, during pendency of the trial.
3. It is argued by the learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is innocent and has falsely been implicated in the present case. The applicant was only a shareholder of the Kalpataru Build Tech. Corporation Pvt. Ltd. She was neither director nor agent nor any authorized signatory in the alleged company; she was implicated because of her being wife of the director of the alleged company who died on 16.04.2021. It is further contended that no active participation, direct or indirect, on the party of the applicant has been established. It is also contended that after the alleged incident several cases have been registered against the applicant for which the applicant has no concern. There is no likelihood of her abscondence or tampering with the evidence. The applicant is languishing in jail since 15.03.2023. In case the applicant is released on bail, she will not misuse the said liberty.
4. The prayer for bail has been vehemently opposed by learned AGA. However, he could not dispute the aforesaid factual aspects raised by the counsel for the applicant.

bail. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.
