

Court No. - 9

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CIVIL) No. - 8076 of 2023

Applicant :- C/M Through Its Chairman Kishan Madhyamic
Vidyalaya And Another

Opposite Party :- Sri Paras Nath Gupta, Deputy Registrar

Counsel for Applicant :- Rajesh Kumar Yadav

Hon'ble Rohit Ranjan Agarwal,J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicants.

The writ Court on 05.06.2023 while disposing of Writ-C No. 19737 of 2023 passed the following order:-

"This Court is sitting as a vacation Bench.

Heard Sri Rajesh Kumar Yadav, learned counsel for petitioners.

Prayers made in this writ petition is essentially to implement the order dated 9.2.1995 passed by this Court in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No.3418 of 1995.

Learned counsel for petitioners fairly submits that petitioners have not taken any steps before the appropriate authority under Societies Registration Act, 1860 and prayed that this writ petition be disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to approach the concerned authority in accordance with law.

In view of the above, this writ petition is disposed of with the aforesaid liberty.

It is made clear that this Court has not entered into the merits of the case"

From perusal of the order, it is clear that no direction was issued by writ Court and liberty was granted to approach the authority concerned.

In view of said fact, no case for contempt is made out.

The contempt applications is misconceived and stands dismissed.

Order Date :- 3.11.2023
