1. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

2. The present petition has been filed with the following prayer:

"i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondents concerned to decide/dispose of the mutation application of the petitioners dated 28.08.2023 within the short time as prescribed by this Hon'ble Court."

3. Contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner was granted lease which was subsequently cancelled against which a revision was filed by the petitioner which was allowed and the order of cancellation was set aside. It is further contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that grievance of the petitioner is that despite of order of cancellation was set aside, the name of the petitioner is not being mutated in the revenue records.

4. Learned Standing Counsel has raised a preliminary objection that the petitioner has an alternative remedy of approaching the revenue authorities under Section 32 of the Uttar Pradesh Revenue Code, 2006 for getting the revenue records corrected.

5. Since the petitioner has an alternative remedy, I am not inclined to entertain the instant petition.
