Civil Secrtt. Lko. And 4 Others

Counsel for Petitioner :- Salil Kumar Srivastava, Digvijay
Mani Tripathi

Counsel for Respondent :- C.S.C., Prabhu Ranjan Tripathi

Hon'ble Abdul Moin, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents no.1 to 3.
2. Despite notice being issued to respondents no.4 and 5 and counter affidavit having been filed on their behalf by Sri Prabhu Ranjan Tripathi, learned counsel, and the list having been revised, nobody has put in appearance on behalf of respondents no.4 and 5.
3. Since the matter is too trivial to keep pending before this Court, the same is being decided at this stage, to which learned Standing counsel has no objection.
4. Instant writ petition has been filed praying for a mandamus commanding the respondents to release the pensionary benefits including the retiral dues.
5. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that despite the petitioner having retired on attaining the age of superannuation on 31.12.2020, his pension and other retiral dues have still not been paid.
6. Learned counsel for the petitioner after arguing at some length submits that with regard to the relief sought in the writ petition, the petitioner may be permitted to submit a fresh representation before respondent no.1 which may be directed to be decided within a time frame fixed by this Court to which learned Standing Counsel has no objection.
7. In view of the above, it is provided that in case the petitioner submits a representation within two weeks from today before respondent no.1 then respondent no.1 shall endeavour to decide the same by means of a reasoned and speaking order within a further period of eight weeks from the date of submission of the representation along with certified copy of this order.

8. With the aforesaid direction, writ petition is disposed off.

9. It is made clear that this Court has not gone into the merits of the case.
