Counsel for Applicant :- Mohit Chandra, Dr. Ashutosh Mishra

Counsel for Opposite Party :- Ratnesh Chandra

Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Jatin Sinha holding brief of Sri Ratnesh Chandra, learned counsel for the opposite party.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has fairly stated that the order of the writ court has been complied with and in compliance of the order of the writ court the petitioner has been provided the additional land for which he has deposited the required amount, therefore, he has requested that if the contempt petition is dismissed on the ground that the order of the writ court has been complied with it may be observed that the further development which has already taken place may not be affected on account of dismissal of the contempt petition.

3. Be that as it may, if pursuant to the order of the writ court the additional land has also been allotted / given to the petitioner for which he has deposited the required amount, as stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner, it is needless to say that if the present contempt petition is dismissed for the reason that the order of the writ court has been complied with, the additional development which has taken place, as considered above, may not be affected on account of dismissal of the contempt petition and the further / required exercise shall be undertaken by the petitioner and authorities strictly in accordance with law.

4. Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed.

5. Notices, if any stand discharged.
