Order on I.A. No.2 of 2023-Impleadment Application)

Sri Ashok Kumar Singh, Advocate appearing in person prays to withdraw the present impleadment application with liberty to file the same at appropriate stage, if required, as at this stage he does not even have a copy of writ petition and he has not perused the same.

With the aforesaid liberty, present impleadment application is consigned to record.

Order on petition:-

Heard learned counsel for petitioner and learned standing counsel for State.

Present writ petition is filed by the petitioner for the following primary relief:-

"Issue a writ of mandamus or a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus thereby commanding and directing to the opposite parties to hand over the possession of chak to the petitioner (tenure holder) as stated under reply given by the opposite party on 19.04.2023 under Right to Information."

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that grievance of petitioner would be sufficiently met in case representation of petitioner for the said purposes is considered and decided in a time bound manner.

Learned standing counsel has no objection to the same.

In view thereof, petitioner is permitted to make a fresh detailed representation to respondent no.2 Consolidation Commissioner, Lucknow, raising all his grievance, annexing therewith all the documents, including orders if any, passed by the State Government in support of his claim within a period of two weeks from today along with a certified copy of this order.

In case such a representation is moved by petitioner, respondent no.2 shall consider and decide the same in accordance with law by a reasoned and speaking order, after hearing all the parties concerned, within a period of two months from the date a certified copy of this order along with representation is placed before him.

It is made clear that this court has not applied itself on the merits of the case and all questions are left open to be considered and decided by the competent authority in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid directions, the writ petition is disposed of.
