Hon'ble Rajnish Kumar,J.

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that inadvertently he could not implead defendant no.2 who is wife of the petitioner in this petition therefore he may be permitted to implead defendant no.2/Prema Devi as opposite party no.3 in this petition.

2. Considering the request of the learned counsel for the petitioner, he is permitted to implead defendant no.2/Prema Devi as opposite party no.3.

3. Heard Shri Shiv Kumar Vishwakarma, learned counsel for the petitioner.

4. Considering the nature of order proposed to be passed in this petition, the issuance of notice to the opposite parties are dispensed with.

5. By means of the present petition, the petitioner has prayed for the following main reliefs:

"i. Direct the opposite party no.1 i.e. Civil Judge, Junior Division, Southern, Sultanpur, to decide the Regular Suit no.1355/2014 (Ram Piyare vs Ram Chandra and others) as earliest as possible within any stipulated period.

ii. Issue any other order or direction in the nature and manner which this Hon'ble Court deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case."

6. This court on administrative side has already issued directions to the court below to obtain zero pendency of cases which are more than five years old. In view of directions already issued on administrative side, this court is not inclined to pass any further order on judicial side.

7. However, it is always open for the petitioner to move appropriate application before the court concerned before which the matter is pending for expeditious hearing. In case any such application is moved within a week from today, the same shall be considered and disposed of within two weeks thereafter and endeavour shall be made to decide the suit within a time frame.

8. With the aforesaid, the petition is disposed of.
