1. Heard Sri Rajesh Kumar, the learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Jayant Singh Tomar, the learned AGA-I for the State and perused the records.
2. The instant application has been filed seeking release of the applicants on bail in Case Crime No. 452 of 2023, under Sections 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 IPC, Police Station Dewa, District Barabanki.
3. The aforesaid case has been registered on the basis of an F.I.R. lodged on 04.06.2023 alleging that the informant had purchased a plot of land from Govardhan Colonizers Private Ltd., of which the applicant is a Director, through a sale deed dated 22.07.2013. The applicant had promised to deliver possession of the land within six months but possession was not delivered to the informant even after expiry of nine years.
4. A copy of the sale deed has been annexed with the affidavit filed in support of the application wherein it is stated that the purchaser had been handed over possession of the land.
5. In the affidavit filed in support of bail application it has been stated that the applicant is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in the present case. The applicant's involvement in 13 other cases has been disclosed in the affidavit filed in support of the application and the learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the applicant has been granted bail in five cases.
6. The learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for bail but he could not dispute the aforesaid aspects of the matter.
7. Having considered the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and keeping in view the fact that grievance of the informant is regarding non delivery of possession of the land purchased in the year 2013 whereas the sale deed mentions that the possession had been delivered to the purchaser; that no proceeding for recovery of possession has been initiated by the informant and that the FIR has been lodged on 04.06.2023, after expiry of about eight years since purchase of the land and without making any observation, which may affect the merits of the case, I am of the view that the aforesaid facts are sufficient for making out a case for enlargement of the applicant on bail in the aforesaid case.

8. Accordingly, this bail application stands allowed.
