

Court No. - 10

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CRIMINAL) No. - 6 of 2023

Applicant :- State of U.P.

Opposite Party :- Shri Manglesh Dubey, S.D.M., Tehsil-Tulsipur, District-Balrampur, U.P.

Counsel for Applicant :- G.A.

Counsel for Opposite Party :- Prabhakar Tiwari, Abhishek Singh

Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra, J.

Hon'ble Narendra Kumar Johari, J.

1. In pursuance of order passed earlier, the contemnor is present in person before this Court. He has filed an affidavit explaining his conduct and praying for forgiveness and also undertaking that he shall be very careful in future and shall comply with all judicial orders that are passed and that he would never repeat any such act reflecting any insubordination or the slightest contempt of Court orders or even of the Court. He has stated that he has realized his mistake of using words and language which appears to be disgraceful causing initiation of the present contempt proceedings. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent has also expressed his apologies on behalf of the contemnor.

2. Since the contemnor is apologetic and has undertaken not to repeat similar behaviour in future and to be very careful in compliance of judicial orders, we hope and trust that he shall be cautious in future. Contempt notices issued to him are discharged. Contempt petition itself stands disposed of.
