Respondent :- State Of U.P. Thru. Prin. Secy. Home Deptt. Govt. Civil
Secrt. Lko. And Others

Counsel for Petitioner :- Manoj Kumar Singh

Counsel for Respondent :- G.A.

Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra,J.

Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal,J.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned AGA for the State and perused the earlier order dated 10.10.2023 wherein certain observations were made and the learned AGA was granted time to seeks instructions.

Learned AGA has sought instructions, a copy of which has been produced before this Court. A copy of case diary has also been produced before this Court wherein it has come out that the injured victim had three injuries as reported in the medical examination report of Dr. Rakesh Sibbal, Medical Officer Community Health Centre who found that all the three injuries were simple in nature and one day old.

This Court having gone through the instructions, a copy of which has been kept on record, finds that from a perusal of the first information report and the injury report that cognizable offence has been made out, therefore, there is no cause to show interference in this matter, accordingly present petition is dismissed.
