

Court No. - 4

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CIVIL) No. - 3445 of 2023

Applicant :- Rampoot

Opposite Party :- Mangala Prasad Singh, District Magistrate / Collector, Hardoi

Counsel for Applicant :- Naresh Singh

Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.

1. Heard Sri Naresh Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Sunil Bajpai, learned Addl. C.S.C. for the State.

2. Sri Sunil Bajpai has shown the copy of instruction letter dated 13.11.2023 preferred by the District Magistrate, Hardoi addressed to the Chief Standing Counsel along with the copy of the order dated 6.10.2023 passed by the District Magistrate, Hardoi making compliance of the order of the writ court, same is taken on record and one copy thereof has been provided to the learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that the order dated 6.10.2023 has been passed but the payment has not been credited in the account of the petitioner.

4. Be that as it may, since the District Magistrate, Hardoi has passed the order dated 6.10.2023, therefore, there is no purpose to keep this contempt petition pending any longer. However, one month's period has passed after passing the order dated 6.10.2023, therefore, it is expected that the amount in question shall be credited in the account of the petitioner with expedition preferably within a period of three weeks from today, to be more precise on or before 16.12.2023, failing which the petitioner may file appropriate application in the present contempt petition seeking revival thereof.

5. Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed.

6. Notices discharged.

7. However, if the contempt petition is revived for the aforesaid reason, any coercive order may be passed under the Contempt of Courts Act against the opposite party.
