

Court No. - 4

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CIVIL) No. - 3450 of 2023

Applicant :- Santosh Kumar

Opposite Party :- Sri Suhas L.Y Director General Provincial Guard
Team/ Develop. Team And Youth Welfare Lko. And Anr.

Counsel for Applicant :- Awadhesh Kumar Singh

Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan,J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel.

2. Learned Standing Counsel has produced the copy of instruction letter dated 08.11.2023 preferred by District Youth Welfare and Pradeshik Vikas Dal, Gonda addressing to Chief Standing Counsel enclosing therewith the duty assigned letter, the same is taken on record. As per the aforesaid instruction letter, the petitioner has been assigned the duty w.e.f. 08.11.2023 to 30.11.2023.

3. Learned Standing Counsel has stated that the Writ Court has directed that since the petitioner has rendered 9 years' long service with the department, it would be appropriate to direct the respondents to give the duty to the petitioner, if there is work and pay him honorarium as is being paid to other members of 'Prantiya Rakshak Dal'.

4. Therefore, learned Standing Counsel has stated that in compliance of the order of Writ Court, the petitioner would be assigned the duty as and when the work would be available and he would be paid honorarium in a same manner as to the other members of 'Prantiya Rakshak Dal' are paid.

5. In the wake of aforesaid development and the specific undertaking, so given by the concerning authority, as has been informed to the Court, I do not find any good purpose to keep this contempt petition pending any longer.

6. Accordingly, the instant contempt petition is dismissed. Notices, if any, are discharged.

7. However, it is expected that the order of the Writ Court would be complied with in future in its letter and spirit.
