Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel and Sri S.S. Chauhan, has appeared as counsel for the Lucknow Development Authority and filed Power, the same is taken on record.

Petitioner has approached this Court for quashing the E-auction notice dated 25.10.2023 and re-allotment of the Flat in dispute.

The facts of the case are that a Flat was allotted to the petitioner in the E-auction on 03.11.2022, however thereafter it was found that the said Flat is already sold to a person and the same is wrongly auctioned. Petitioner was communicated the said fact by letter dated 16.12.2022 by the Lucknow Development Authority, Lucknow and the entire amount without any deduction was returned, which was also accepted by the petitioner. Now again, the said Flat is published for E-auction.

Sri Shailendra Singh Chauhan, learned counsel for the Lucknow Development Authority has placed an order dated 17.10.2023 of the Lucknow Development Authority whereby the said Flat has been withdrawn from the E-auction as the sale deed of the same is already executed way back on 10.10.2019. It is further stated that the same was wrongly published for E-auction.

The said letter dated 10.10.2019, placed by learned counsel for Lucknow Development Authority, is taken on record.

In view thereof, no further order is required to be passed in the present writ petition.

The petition is consigned to record.
