Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan,J.

1. Heard Sri Ramesh Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioners.

2. Attention has been drawn towards the order of the Writ Court dated 30.05.2023 passed in Writ-C No.4098 of 2023, which reads as under:-

"Heard.

The petitioner seeks payment of dues for work done by him in 2018.

We are now in 2023. If a suit for recovery was to be filed wherein the limitation would be three years.

Considering the delay which has not been explained satisfactorily, we dispose of this petition only on the ground of delay and laches, leaving it open for the petitioner to approach the authorities concerned or seek such other remedies, as may be permissible in law."

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners has fairly stated that however no direction has been issued by the Writ Court but liberty was given to the petitioners to prefer a representation to the authority concerned.

4. In compliance of the aforesaid order, the petitioners have preferred representation dated 14.06.2023 to the Muncipal Commissioner, Nagar Nigam, Lucknow on 17.06.2023 but no decision has been taken on the representation of the petitioners till date.

5. Since the Writ Court has not directed to decide the representation by stipulating time, therefore, no order can be passed in the present contempt petition.

6. However, it is needless to say that if any representation was preferred by the petitioners, at least the same should have been decided by the authority concerned, as per his wisdom and principles of law.

7. In view of the above, the instant contempt petition is disposed of.
