1. On 31.10.2023, following order was passed:

"1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material brought on record.

2. This application has been filed for quashing the order dated 31.07.2023 passed in Complaint Case No. 933 of 2022 (Meenu Prajapati Vs. Vinod Prajapati & Ors.), under Sections 498-A, 323, 506 I.P.C., P.S. Mahila Thana, District Faizabad.

3. It is submitted that marriage of applicant was solemnized with respondent no. 2 and were enjoying their matrimonial life, but due to some trivial issues in between them, a F.I.R. No. 31 of 2020, under Sections 498-A, 323 I.P.C. and Section 3/4 D.P. Act was lodged by respondent no. 2, in which, after investigation, final report was submitted. It is further submitted that thereafter, protest petition was filed, which was treated as a complaint case. Learned counsel for the applicant also submits that there is every possibility that the matter can be resolved, in case, the matter is sent to the Mediation Center of this Court.

4. Learned A.G.A. has no objection, in case, the matter is sent for Mediation Center of this Court.

5. Considering the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned A.G.A. and going through the contents of F.I.R., complaint case and other relevant documents, it is evident that the issue in question arises due to matrimonial dispute and, therefore, it is appropriate to send the matter to the Mediation Center of this Court.

interim order shall automatically stand vacated."

As it is evident that applicant has deliberately flouted the order of this Court, therefore, he is not entitled to get any relief.

3. Accordingly, the application is dismissed and the interim order, granted earlier, is hereby vacated.
