Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.

1. Heard Sri Sagar Singh, the learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Jayant Singh Tomar, the learned AGA-I for the State and perused the records.
2. The instant application has been filed by the applicant seeking anticipatory bail in Case Crime No. 251 of 2023, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 354, 452, 323, 324, 307, 504, 506 IPC, Police Station Safipur, District Unnao.
3. The aforesaid case has been registered on the basis of an FIR lodged on 05.09.2023 against nine persons including the applicant stating that co-accused Deepak was molesting the informant's sister and when the informant's father reached there upon hearing her hue and cry, the accused persons assaulted him. When other family members tried to save him, the accused persons beaten them also.
4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that seven persons from the informant's side have received injuries in the incident. He further submits that five persons from the applicant's side have also received injuries in the incident.
5. Three co-accused Deepak, Amit and Prembabu have been granted bail in the present case by the sessions court.
6. Having considered the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this Court finds no reason to treat the applicant differently in granting him pre-arrest bail and the applicant may also seek bail from the sessions court like other co-accused persons who have already been granted bail.
7. In view of the above, the anticipatory bail is rejected.
8. However, in case the applicant files an application for grant of bail, the same shall be considered and decided expeditiously in accordance with law without being influenced by rejection of his anticipatory bail.
