1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.G.A. for the State-respondents.
2. The present writ petition has been filed with a prayer to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari for quashing the first information report dated 01.03.2023 at Case Crime No.0067 of 2023 under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC at Police Station Asivan, District Unnao and with a further prayer to stay the arrest of the petitioners.
3. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that the impugned FIR has been lodged after an inordinate delay of one and a half years through an application filed under Section 156(3) of the Cr.P.C. It has been further stated that dispute is civil in nature which relates to execution of a sale deed allegedly done by an imposter. The sale deed so executed has not been challenged by filing a civil suit which is an appropriate remedy and the civil dispute has been tried to be given a criminal colour.
4. Learned AGA has pointed out that allegation of fraudulent behaviour in setting up an imposter in place of the deceased mother of the informant is clearly mentioned in the impugned FIR.
5. This Court has perused the impugned F.I.R. and prima facie finds that cognizable offence is being made out hence finds no good ground to show interference as prayed in this petition. The Writ Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
