Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Rajeev Singh, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants as well as learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The instant application has been filed for quashing the entire proceedings of Crime Nos. 444/2014, 582/2019, 111/2015, 585/2019 lodged by applicants against respondent nos. 2 to 6 as well as proceedings of Crime Nos. 444-A/2014, 09/2015, N.C.R. No. 95/2014, Crime No. 520/2015, Civil Case No. 1340/2014 lodged by respondent no. 2 to 6 against applicants at Gomti Nagar, Lucknow together with charge-sheets filed therewith pending in different courts in Civil Court, Lucknow.

3. Learned counsel for the applicants submits that both the parties have amicably compromised their dispute. The compromise which has taken place between the parties is also filed before this Court as Annexure No.1 to the application.

4. Whether the parties have, in fact, compromised the matter or not, can best be ascertained by the trial court concerned as such compromise has to be duly verified in presence of the parties concerned before the Court.

5. Accordingly, this application is disposed of with a direction to the trial court concerned that if any such compromise is filed before it, it shall issue notices to all the signatories to the compromise requiring their personal presence and, thereafter, proceed to verify the compromise. If the aforesaid compromise is verified, a report to that effect shall be prepared by the court and the compromise will be made part of the record.

6. The court concerned in that scenario will allow the parties to obtain certified copy of the report as well as compromise and it will be open to the applicants to approach this Court again for quashing of the proceedings.

7. For a period of one month, no coercive action shall be taken against the applicants in the aforesaid case.

8. Office is directed to return the original compromise deed to the learned counsel for the applicants, after taking the photocopy of the same.
