Hon'ble Rajnish Kumar, J.

Office has raised an objection that the provision/ group mismatch with memo which is to be clarified because this writ petition has been filed under Article 226 read with Article 227 of the Constitution of India. A note was made by learned counsel for the petitioner that the writ petition is maintainable under Article 226 as well as 227. However, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly concedes that the writ petition can be filed only under Article 227 of the Constitution of India and he submits that this petition may be dismissed as not pressed with liberty to file fresh. To which there is no objection by the learned Standing Counsel, Shri Dilip Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the Gaon Sabha and Shri Jaibind Singh Rathour, learned counsel for the respondent no.3.

Dismissed accordingly as not pressed with liberty as aforesaid.

As prayed by learned counsel for the petitioner, the office is directed to return the certified copies annexed with this petition to the learned counsel for the petitioner in accordance with law after keeping photocopy on record.
