

Court No. - 10

Case :- CRIMINAL MISC. WRIT PETITION No. - 9222 of 2023

Petitioner :- Roli

Respondent :- State Of U.P. Thru. Secy. Deptt. Of Home Lko. And Others

Counsel for Petitioner :- Shailendra Pathak, Km. Anjali Gautam

Counsel for Respondent :- G.A.

Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra, J.

Hon'ble Narendra Kumar Johari, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned AGA who appears on behalf of State-respondents and perused the record.

This writ petition has been filed praying the following main reliefs:

"(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus directing the Opposite Parties particularly opposite party no.3 not to disturb and interfere in the independent life of the petitioner and further not to force the petitioner to live with the opposite party no.4.

(ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus directing the Opposite Party No.2 to take appropriate action into the matter against the opposite party No.3 and 4 in accordance with law upon the representation of the petitioner and protect the life and liberty of the petitioner."

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the opposite party no. 4 is the husband of the petitioner, who he is forcing her to live with him and she is tired of the harassment being meted out by her in-laws, therefore, she has left her matrimonial home and started living with one Akash Dubey, who is a distant relative, at his home. It has further been submitted that she has made an application in this regard to the Superintendent of Police, Bahraich on 29.11.2023 by speed post, copy of which has been filed as Annexure-2 to the petition.

This Court, having perused the record, finds no good ground to show interference as prayed for in this writ petition.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
