Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.

1. Heard Sri Pradeep Kumar Mishra, the learned counsel for the applicant as well as Ms. Ankita Tripathi, the learned Additional Government Advocate appearing on behalf of the State and perused the records.

2. The instant application has been filed by the applicant seeking anticipatory bail in F.I.R. bearing Case Crime No. 296 of 2023, under Sections 147, 307, 323, 324 IPC, Police Station Khiron, District Raebareli.

3. The aforesaid case has been registered on the basis of an F.I.R. lodged on 18.07.2023 against five persons, including the applicant, alleging that all the accused persons had assaulted the informant's brother with sharp edged weapon and sticks with intention of killing him and when the informant and some other persons tried to intervene, they were also assaulted and five persons have received injuries in the incident including some grievous injuries.

4. In the affidavit filed in support of the application it has been contended that the applicant is innocent, he has falsely been implicated in the present case and that he has no criminal history.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant states that Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application Nos. 2381 of 2023 and 2198 of 2023 filed by four co-accused persons have been rejected by this Court.

6. Having considered the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and keeping in view the fact that five persons have received injuries in the incident and anticipatory bail applications of four co-accused persons have already been rejected by this Court, the instant application is also rejected.
