1. Present petition has been filed by the petitioner challenging recovery notice dated 12.10.2023 whereby an amount of Rs.5,93,619/- was directed to be paid and the rebate of interest was granted to the petitioner subject to the petitioner depositing entire amount by 17.10.2023.

2. The petitioner has not deposited the said amount within the time as indicated in the recovery notice. Earlier also, the petitioner had approached this Court by filing a writ petition challenging the same recovery which was disposed off vide order dated 10.07.2023 granting certain benefits of installments to the petitioner.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the benefit of the amount indicated in the recovery notice dated 12.10.2023 should be extended to the petitioner even if he pays the same beyond the time as indicated in the recovery notice.

4. As the benefit of the scheme was informed to the petitioner through recovery notice, the petitioner would be at liberty to approach the respondent bank for extending the benefit of waiver of interest. In case the policy permits, the bank would permit the petitioner to avail the said benefit.

5. No further directions are required.

6. The writ petition stands disposed off with the said observation.
