Court No. - 4

Case :- CONTEMPT APPLICATION (CIVIL) No. - 4369 of 2023

Applicant :- Ashok Kumar Mishra
Opposite Party :- Soman Barma, S.P. Sultanpur
Counsel for Applicant :- Ashutosh Kumar Singh

Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan,J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that despite specific order having been passed by this Court in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.28906 of 2018, which has been served upon the Superintendent of Police, District-Sultanpur by means of application dated 24.03.2022, but no decision has been taken by the Superintendent of Police, District-Sultanpur.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that the petitioner has preferred representation and reminder representations to the Superintendent of Police, District-Sultanpur, but to no avail.

4. On being confronted on the point of limitation, learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that since the representation and reminder representations have been preferred to the Superintendent of Police, District-Sultanpur, therefore, it may be considered recurring cause of action.

5. However, learned counsel for the petitioner has requested that he may be permitted to not press this contempt petition at this stage with liberty to avail appropriate remedy before appropriate authority/ court of law.

6. In view of the above, the present contempt petition is dismissed being not pressed with the aforesaid liberty.
