Counsel for Petitioner :- Nisha Srivastava

Counsel for Respondent :- C.S.C.

Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh,J.

1. Learned standing counsel for the State has pointed out the the Consolidation proceedings has already been reached to an end thus, further, the proceedings before the Consolidation Officer are not maintainable and thus, this petition is not maintainable at this ground alone.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the application under section 24 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 is also instituted by the private respondents and if, the present petitioner is not permitted to press his application, then private respondents may also be restrained from pressing his petition under section 24 after publication of section 52 of Act, 1953, before the authority concerned.

3. In view of the aforesaid submissions, this Court finds no merit in the case thus, this petition is dismissed.

4. Consigned to records.

5. Interim order if any, stands vacated.
