

[4] Mr. A. Bhaumik, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits before this Court that earlier by way of filing writ petition bearing no.

W.P.(C) 722 of 2022 three employees approached before this Court seeking their reliefs and by order dated 17.03.2023, this Court disposed of the case of the said employees directing the respondents to consider the case of the employees in accordance with law. In compliance with the said order dated, 17.03.2023, the respondents have considered the same and also issued a memorandum dated 17.12.2023 in favour of the employees extending the benefit. Thereafter, the petitioners herein approached the respondents authority by filing their representation on 25.01.2024 seeking the same reliefs as extended to the said similarly situated other employees so that, there cannot be any discrimination. But, the said representation dated 25.01.2024 is still pending before the respondents and hence, the petitioners have approached before this Court seeking the same reliefs.

[5] In view of the same, without expressing any opinion on the merits of this case, the present writ petition is disposed of directing the respondents to consider the representation dated 25.01.2024 and pass appropriate order on the representation in the light of the above referred 17.12.2023 proceedings. This decision shall be taken within a period of 02(two) months from the date of receipt of the copy of this order.

[6] With the above observation and direction, this present writ petition stands disposed of. As a sequel, miscellaneous application(s), pending if any, shall stand closed.
