JUDGMENT AND ORDER (ORAL)

1. This matter was referred to mediation by order dated 04-10-2024. It appears that the mediation proceedings are successful and the report of the Mediator has been filed before this Court on 05-11-2024.

2. Perused the terms arrived at, and the same is also shown to the learned counsel appearing for the parties. The learned counsels, though agreeable to the terms as arrived at between the parties, however, submits that the only point left out is with regard to the three impugned orders passed by the respondent No. 5 Dorbar. To this, Mr. J.Shylla, learned counsel appearing for the respondent No. 5 Dorbar, submits that in view of the mutual settlement arrived at, the orders will be withdrawn.

3. Accordingly, the terms as contained in the mediation proceedings is hereby made an order of this Court and are reproduced herein below:

“All the parties are present today at the Meghalaya High Court Conference Room on the 5th November, 2024 agreed to the terms and conditions as laid down by both the parties that both the Petitioner and the Respondent which are as followed:-
