ORDER

Date : 19.07.2024

Heard Mr. E. Payang, learned counsel for the petitioner and Ms. L. Hage, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State of Arunachal Pradesh.

By an order, dated 21.03.2024, this Court while calling for the Case Diary, the accused was granted interim anticipatory bail with a direction that in the event of his arrest in connection with Cyber Crime P.S. Itanagar Case No.07/2024 under Section 292/354 IPC read with Section 67 of the Information and Technology Act, 2000, the accused, Shri Joram Paul shall be released on interim bail on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.20,000/- with one surety of like amount with certain terms and conditions.

Case Diary as called for, has been produced and I have perused the same.

The record reveals that after obtaining the interim anticipatory bail, the accused had surrendered himself before the I.O. of the case on 23.03.2024. And on such surrender made by the accused before the I.O. of the case, he was arrested in connection with the above P.S. case. However, on the same day, the accused was released on bail on execution of a bail bond on the strength of the interim anticipatory bail granted to him on 21.03.2024.

Ms. Hage, learned Addl. P.P. submits that even after his released also, the accused is co-operating and appearing before the I.O. of the case. And now, after completion of investigation a draft charge-sheet has been submitted to the Superintendent of Police for onward submission before the Court. And under the circumstances, the further custodial remand of the accused person would not be required.

In view of the above and the submissions made by the learned counsels for the parties, as the custodial remand and interrogation of the accused would not be required any further, the interim anticipatory bail granted to the accused on 21.03.2024 is hereby regularized and made absolute under the same terms and conditions. This order shall be read along with the order dated 21.03.2024.

Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application stands disposed of.
