ORDER

09.01.2024

This Court on the last occasion i.e., 09.11.2023 had passed the following order:

“ Mr. N. J. Choudhury, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that but he be in all probability this writ petition has become infructuous granted two weeks time to obtain updated instruction from his client.

The prayer is not opposed by Mr. G. Boklial, learned Government Advocate, Assam appearing on behalf of the State.

In view of the above, Registry to list this case again on 24.11.2023 as a fixed item so as to enable the petitioner's counsel to obtain instruction.”

Heard Shri NJ Choudhury, learned appearing on instructions of Shri AR Bhuyan, learned counsel for the petitioner, who submits that in spite of his best efforts, no instructions could not be obtained from his client.

Also heard Shri G Bokolial, learned State Counsel, Assam, who by referring to the last order dated 09.11.2023 has submitted that this Court had already observed that the writ petition had, in all probability, become infructuous.

In view of the above and without expressing any opinion on the merits, this writ petition is dismissed for want of prosecution.
