ORDER

15.07.2024.

Heard Shri A Ganguli, learned counsel for the applicants. Also heard Shri W Ahmed, learned counsel representing the APDCL.

The instant application has been filed in a disposed of writ petition for declaration of result in respect of the posts of Office-cum- Field Assistant, Shayak and Mali.

Shri Ganguli, learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that a number of writ petitions, including WP(C)/2529/2019 were disposed of vide a common judgment and order dated 27.08.2019 whereby certain directions were made for examining the candidatures of the applicants-petitioners.

In the instant interlocutory application, a prayer has been made for declaration of results and also to stay further actions of short listing of candidates for recruitment.

Whether an interlocutory application would be maintainable on a disposed of matter, that too, wherein independent reliefs are sought for is itself questionable. Further, it is seen that the relief sought for pertain to a period of the year 2019-2020.

The applicants also admittedly did not avail any other recourse available in law.

Accordingly, this Court is of the considered opinion that the grievance sought to be espoused by filing an interlocutory application in a disposed of writ petition, more particularly, the nature of the relief claimed, the instant interlocutory application is not maintainable.

The interlocutory application, accordingly stands dismissed.
