(Vijay Bishnoi, CJ)

The matter comes upon for consideration of the present application, preferred on behalf of the applicant, under Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, with a prayer to condone the delay of 4(four) days in filing the connected Custom Reference.

Notice issued to the sole respondent has been served.

Mr. B. Kaushik, learned counsel has appeared on behalf of the sole respondent. He has not seriously opposed the application for condonation of delay.

Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and after going through the contents of the application, we deem it appropriate to condone the delay of 4(four) days in preferring the connected Custom Reference. Hence, the present application is allowed and the delay of 4(four) days in preferring the connected Custom Reference is condoned.

Registry is directed to register the connected Custom Reference and list the same for admission after 2(two) weeks.

The present Interlocutory Application is, accordingly, disposed of.
