2. By the present application, the applicants have prayed for correction of certain errors in the cause-title appearing in the judgment and order dated 10.05.2024 passed in a bunch of the writ petitions including WP(C)/5535/2022. 3. It is clarified that the name of the petitioner no. 4 in the said WP(C)/5535/2022 should be Sahidul Alom Laskar, son of Moin Uddin Laskar and is a resident of Vill.-Berenga Part-V, P.O.-Bethukandi, P.S.-Silchar, District-Cachar, Assam.

4. Similarly, for the petitioner no. 7 was written as-

6. The learned counsel has submitted that the error was inadvertent one which has crept in the writ petition during the presentation. He has also submitted that the connected documents were already filed with the writ petition.

7. Shri TR Gogoi, learned State Counsel submits that he would not have serious objection in principle on the prayers made above.

8. Considering that the error pointed out while presenting the petition and which eventually was a part of the connected order dated 10.05.2024, this Court, in the interest of justice, allows this I.A. by observing that the correct names and addresses of the petitioner nos. 4 and 7 as reflected above are to be taken into consideration.
