3. Heard Mr. M. P. Goswami, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, Assam for the respondent State.
4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor has submitted that there are incriminating materials in the Case Diary against the petitioner.

The allegation against the petitioner is that she is a member of a shell company, and being a member of such a company, she was involved in collecting money from innocent citizens at the rate of Rs. 2000/- each to disburse a loan of Rs. 25000/- to them. In this manner, innocent villagers were duped and money was syphoned out by the company and when the persons cheated had come up with this case against the petitioner's company, the company is evading to pay and return the money procured from the clients. The petitioner has played a significant role as an employee of the company.
