Heard Shri Rakesh Kumar Nayak, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri Girijesh Kumar Dwivedi, learned A.G.A. for the State.

Shri Girijesh Kumar Dwivedi, learned A.G.A. contends that prima facie the cognizable offence is disclosed against the applicants. The prosecution case set out in the F.I.R. is that the accused persons attacked the victims with lathi and danda and inflicted injuries. The accused persons also abused the victims.

Faced with this, Shri Rakesh Kumar Nayak, learned counsel for the applicants contends that they do not wish to press the prayer sought in the application. They recast relief and submit that the applicants wish to apply for bail before the competent court and invoke any other alternative remedy available to the applicants. It is always open to the applicants to avail remedies available to them in law before the competent court. In case such application is filed before the competent court, the same shall be decided expeditiously as per law.

The Application U/S 482 is disposed of.
