

Court No. - 29

Case :- APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 2733 of 2024

Applicant :- Brij Mohan Verma Alias Brijmohan

Opposite Party :- State Of U.P. Thru. Prin. Secy. Home Lko. And Another

Counsel for Applicant :- Neelam Pandey

Counsel for Opposite Party :- G.A.

Hon'ble Ajay Bhanot,J.

The prosecution case set out in the FIR is that the applicant colluded with the offender to execute a forged sale deed.

Learned AGA contends that a prima facie offence is disclosed from the FIR as well as material evidence in the record and there is no infirmity in the impugned order.

Faced with this learned counsel for the applicant contends that applicant does not wish to press the relief sought in this application.

Accordingly, the said relief sought is declined.

Learned counsel for the applicant recasts his relief and submits that the applicant may be permitted to apply for bail or invoke any other remedy before the learned trial court.

It is always open to the applicant to avail legal remedies available to him as per law before the learned trial court. However, in case the applicant invokes such remedy, the competent court shall decide the same expeditiously and in accordance with law.

The application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. is disposed of.
