Counsel for Petitioner :- Shiv Prakash Dwivedi, Ashok Kumar Pandey, Manish Kumar Shrivastav

Counsel for Respondent :- C.S.C.

Hon'ble Rajan Roy, J.

Hon'ble Brij Raj Singh, J.

1. Heard Sri Manish Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for State-opposite parties no.1 to 5 and Sri Suresh Chandra, learned counsel who has filed power on behalf of opposite party no.6, which is taken on record.

2. Essentially, the dispute is between the petitioner and opposite party no.6. The remedy for the petitioner is under civil/revenue/criminal law as the case may be, but not under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. If the grievance is with regard to any illegal interference by the police authorities, the petitioner may approach the higher authorities in this regard. The police authorities cannot interfere unless there is a law and order problem, apprehension of breach of peace or commission of any crime or any other valid ground for interference in law, if it is so. The police authorities shall keep their hands off from the dispute aforesaid subject to what has been stated herein-above. However, learned Standing Counsel says that police is not interfering in the matter. .

3. Writ petition is disposed of.
